Amman, Jordan's capital, offers an unforgettable blend of ancient history, vibrant culture, and modern delights. Here, history buffs can explore millennia-old citadels and Roman ruins, while foodies savor delectable cuisine and art lovers delve into thriving art scenes.

Introduction

Amman is bursting with architecture, historical sites, and cultural gems at every turn. This city of Amman is considered more western and modern than other parts of Jordan. Amman is a metropolis with a growing population of around 4 million residents. Thanks to its sprawling size, the Jordanian capital has so much to offer tourists and locals alike. The city caters to every kind of visitor, from the history buff to the foodie. Our range of Amman tours will provide travelers with everything they need to explore the vibrant atmosphere and beyond.

History

Amman was originally built on seven hills but has since covered the span of nineteen hills, divided into 27 zones. Each zone is named after the hill (Jabal) or valley (wadi) that it lies on. Every zone has its own character and is home to diverse architecture, culture, and history.

Climate

Amman's climate weaves together elements of both the Mediterranean and semi-arid worlds. Summers, stretching from June to September, are hot with average highs reaching 25°C (77°F). While refreshing breezes help temper the heat, occasional bursts can push temperatures even higher. Spring and autumn offer brief but pleasant respites. April-May and October-November see comfortable temperatures, typically ranging from highs in the low 20s °C (70s F) to lows in the mid-teens °C (50s F).

About Jordan

The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan

An Arab Muslim country, located in the north of the Arabian Peninsula and in West Asia. Bordered by Syria to the north, Iraq to the east, Saudi Arabia to the south and south-east, and Palestine (the West Bank) to the west it is located at 31 00 N, 36 00 E.

Jordan is named to the Jordan River, which passes on its western border, and Amman is the capital.

Climate and Clothing

Jordan has a mild climate with no extreme of hot or cold (spring weather) during the Congress period. Generally, Jordan's climate and geography are divided naturally into three regions: desert on the Eastern Bank, Heights East (warm and dry summers and mild, rainy winters and some snow) and Jordan Valley. The annual temperature averages between 12-15°C (59-77°F) up to a summer high of 28-36°C in desert regions. Average rainfall is of 50 mm (1.97 inches) a year in the desert to 800 mm (31.5 inches) in the northern highlands. Snow falls at intervals mostly in the Northern, Central and Southern Highlands and can be very heavy at times.

Jordan benefits from a diversity of geographical characteristics, from the river basin valley in the west to the desert in the east with some small hills and highlands.

The lowest point is the Dead Sea: -408m (1338.6 ft) highest point: Jabal Rum, 1734 meters (5689thft). Jordan generally lacks freshwater sources. The river Jordan, the longest river in the country has reached low levels in recent decades.

Currency

1 US Dollar is equivalent to 0.708 Jordan Dinar. Hotels will exchange money at all hours.

Tipping and Taxis

Tipping is not common practice in Jordan. Most hotels and large restaurants already include a 10% service charge and 16% government tax in their bills, so there is no need for tips and it's your choice.

Taxis

Taxis (Yellow) are inexpensive inside the city and often the most convenient form of transportation in Jordan. The white – painted (service taxis) offer transportation between fixed routes and are to be shared with other passengers. Private yellow taxis; can be taken from ranks outside larger hotels or hailed on the street. Taxis drivers are friendly and usually speak some English.

15th International Congress of the Jordanian Ophthalmological Society
